SEVEN DIE OF PNEUMONIA

Epidemic Believed to Have Reached Crest and Thought to be now on Decline—Good Work Being Done to Check Plague.

Seven deaths from influenza have occurred here during the past twenty-four hours, Despite the steady increase in the number of fatalities due to the disease the health officials believe the epidemic is nearing its crest.

The health authorities believe that the precautionary measures taken have been largely responsible for improved conditions.

Volunteers are needed to care for the patients now being treated. The committee on influenza of the Chamber of Commerce, as will be seen in another column has collected several hundred additional dollars for the work and they are doing splendid work with the funds given.

Most of the deaths during the past few days have been due to pneumonia and many of those who have been suffering from influenza are reported to be recovering.

WILL MAKE GAS MASKS

All are Urged to Save Fruit Pits and Nut Shells to be Used For That Purpose

The appeal of the gas defense division for the conservation of fruit pits and nut shells is possibly one of the most important that has been presented since this country entered the war. Every soldier, every nurse, every Red Cross worker, every Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus field secretary and the representative of every other organization in France must be equipped with a good mask before entering the field. Gas warfare must be combatted. The horror which the word "Gassed" brings to the men in the trenches demands your co-operation in this work.

The Autumn nut crop can play an important place in war history. Large quantities of hickory nuts walnuts and butternuts may be found in various sections of the country. The kernels of these nuts will find a ready market—the gas defense division needs the shells. Hence this plea should reach the boy scouts the Girl Scouts, the Camp Fire Girls, and the children at large whether city born or country bred. They are urged to form nut clubs and gather the complete crop, to sell the meat and turn the shells in to their local Red Cross. Whole nuts can be used but it is preferred that none be shipped unless there is insufficient labor to extract the kernels. Two hundred peach pits or seven pounds of nut shells will produce enough carbon for one gas mask. Will you do your share to give at least one man the best gas mask?

All fruit pits and seeds should be thoroughly dried in the oven or in the sun before delivery to the Red Cross or central collection point. Drying is very important before shipping, and all individuals, restaurants and hotels who can arrange to dry their material are urged to do so.

NOTICE.

The Alexandria National Bank, King and Royal streets, will be open today from 5 o'clock this afternoon until 9 p. m. in order to accommodate all persons desiring to purchase Liberty Loans. A cordial invitation is extended by this bank to all persons desiring to purchase bonds to call and make their arrangements.

CAMPAIGN ENDS TODAY

Banks Will Keep Open Until 9 p. m.—Before They Close Purchase a Bond and Help Make the World Safe for Democracy and Put Alexandria Way "Over the Top."

Only a few more hours remain in which to purchase Liberty Bonds The banks will close at 9 o'clock tonight. If you have not yet purchased a Liberty Bond go at once to your bank and do so and help make the world safe for Democracy and help Alexandria to go away over the top.

You owe it to your country and to your people to purchase these bonds to the utmost. If you have overlooked it remember you have until 9 o'clock tonight. You can make your arrangements before the banks close. Don't put it off another minute but go at once.

Let every man, woman and child have their name on the honor roll. This roll means that those whose names are inscribed thereon are the people at home who are doing their bit to help the boys "over there". These boys are giving everything they possess and are willing to make the supreme sacrifice and why not you purchase a few hundred dollars worth of the best bonds floated in the world today?

Any one who has the money and has not purchased bonds to their very utmost does not deserve the protection of the flag under which they live.

If every citizen of Alexandria does his duty Alexandria will double her quota. There is absolutely no question about going "over the top." The local committee of which Leo P. Harlow in chairman is anxious that every person in the city subscribe to the Fourth Liberty Loan. If they do so Alexandria may well feel proud of her record when the complete returns are announced. If they do not what will the Alexandria boys "over there" think of those at home?

Come, let everyone, therefore, go forward tonight to the banking institution and purchase, at least, one bond.

Today the bankers have been busy selling bonds and every bank reports a big bond business, all having sold or taken more than their quota and tonight promises to be one of the busiest evenings the bankers have had since they have been in business. There is no excuse why anyone should not purchase their bonds before the end of the campaign at 9 o'clock tonight.

W. D. Burkett, superintendent of the Virginia Life Insurance Company has been notified that his company has increased its local subscription for Liberty Bonds from $3,000 to $5,000.

RED CROSS RUSHES SUPPLIES TO GREEKS

Rome, Oct. 19.—The American Red Cross is rushing to aid the Island of Mytelene, where 60,000 Greek refugees from Asia Minor are stricken with fever. The expedition is under command of Captain Wilkins, of Baltimore, and Captain Stevens of Cambridge. Large quantities of food, medicine and clothing are being taken to the island.

MERELY A TRICK

The newspaper La Liberte of Paris prints a letter from Switzerland asserting that the German peace demand is merely a trick designed to gain time for a continuation of a defensive war without Austria. The letter suggests Germany will get virtually all of Austria's artillery and war material before the dual monarchy's collapse. The whole French Socialist press anticipates a rapid spread of the German unrest until it becomes a revolution which the Socialists of Paris hope will be a social as well as a pacifist rising.

EVACUATE ZEEBRUGGE

Entire Belgian Coast Now Freed And Menace to England Removed.

London, Oct. 19.—British and American troops have captured Mazinghein, northeast of Bohain, and have completed the capture of Bazeuil, Field Marshal Haig announced today.

London, Oct. 19.—Zeebrugge, the port of Bruges and the second important German submarine base on the Belgian coast, has been occupied by Allied forces.

Bruges, seven miles south of Zeebrugge, has been evacuated by the Germans, according to information received at the Belgian Army Headquarters.

Turcoing, a city six miles northeast of Lille, has been entered by the British troops, according to the Evening News.

The Germans are planning to inundate the low-lying lands south of the river Scheldt, in eastern Belgium, a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam reports. The inhabitants have been ordered to abandon their homes immediately.

Admiral Keyes' entry into Ostend was made in the course of operations designed to clear up the military situation between Nieuport and Ostend which was obscure, the Admiralty announced. The naval forces withdrew then the Germans, who were not clear of the town, began shelling the warships.

In the area between Bruges and the sea large captures of Germans are not expected, as the sector has been lightly held by the enemy

From the Scarpe to the sea the process of flattening out the German line continues and many interesting developments may be expected shortly. The fall of Roubaix probably will follow that of Turcoing. The line from Turcoing now runs southward along the Lille-Douai railroad.

Indications are that the Germans are about to evacuate the pocket between the Serre and Cise north of La Fere.

An Urgent Appeal

The women in charge of the diet kitchen in the Young People's building this afternoon issued an appeal to the women in the city to report tomorrow at that building between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., to assist in delivering food to the sick persons. Those who have automobiles should use them as this will greatly speed up the work.

The present force is entirely inadequate and unless there is a big response on the part of the women of Alexandria many persons suffering from influenza will go without food tomorrow.

FEAR UPRISING

The German high command fears an uprising by the people of Belgium while the German armies are retreating. News to this effect was contained in dispatches to Havre which said the German military authorities in Belgium have been conferring with the civilian authorities with a view to enlisting the latter's aid in suppressing outbreaks.

Cardinal Gibbons yesterday subscribed for $50,000 worth of liberty bonds of the fourth loan for the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

ARE RIOTING IN BERLIN

Kaiser Said to Have Abdicated When Ruling Caste Interferred and Restored Him.

London, Oct. 19.—Intervention by the ruling classes in Germany restored the Kaiser after he had actually abdicated, and interferred with the sending of a reply to President Wilson's last note, the Chronicle today declared it had reason to believe.

According to this news, it appeared the Kaiser had abdicated for several hours, and probably even signed his abdication. An agreement on an armistice under President Wilson's terms was reached, and actually under way when the ruling caste intervened, caused cancellation of the note, and restore dthe Kaiser.

London, Oct. 19.—Peace rioters attacked and stormed the Kaiser's palace in Berlin on Wednesday and smashed one hundred of the windows with bricks, said an Amsterdam dispatch to the Daily Express today.

The Kaiser was reported to have been in hiding during the attack.

Police and soldiers were ordered out against the rioters and attacked them with bayonets.

At the recent election to select a successor to Kaempf, the independent Socialists paraded, carrying placards with the slogan: "If the war lasts another year, the Kaiser will make his exit as the Czar did."

GET 140 GALLONS IN MOONSHINE RAID

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 19.—One hundred and forty gallons of moonshine liquor, three mules, two wagons and two sets of harness were captured in a daring north Georgia raid made by Capt. Henry S. Cole and his provost guards.

The moonshiners made their escape by jumping from the wagons and placing two little children on their backs to prevent the soldiers from shooting at them.

The military officers came upon the moonshiners while on their way to assist the sheriff of Dade county, Ga., in the capture of a dangerous character. The confiscated "mountain dew" is valued at $4,000.

FORMER SENATOR KEARNS IS DEAD

SCalt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 19.—Former United States Senator Thomas Kearns, mining magnate and railway builder, died at his home here following a stroke of apoplexy suffered several days ago. He was struck by an automobile about two weeks ago, and the excitement due to the accident is said to have brought on the stroke.

Mr. Kearns was fifty-six years old, and is survived by a widow and three children. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1901 and served four years. He was the owner of the Salt Lake City Tribune, and leaves a fortune estimated at several millions.

THE SAND IS RUNNING LOW

An exchange prints a picture which is suggestive now when the time in which we can subscribe to Liberty Bonds is about to expire. Uncle Sam is represented as sitting before an hour glass, the sands in which are fearly run.

The Alexandria banks will be open virtually all day and far into the night for the purpose of accommodating those who desire to subscribe. Let us hope our old city will not be called upon to report any slackers As has been said before,

Liberty Bonds stand for freedom and Heaven.

Germany stands for slavery and hell

Which will you have?

Germany is fighting to enslave mankind and make of all the world a hell under German domination.

America and our Allies are fighting to save human freedom and make a Heaven on earth.

The battle is on; we will have one or the other

To the extent that you back our nation in every way in your power and buy Liberty Bonds to the utmost stretch of your ability you are working for freedom and Heaven.

To the extent that you fail to do your share you are helping Germany in its effort to enslave mankind in an earthly hell, ruled by the vilest brutes that earth ever knew.

You cannot shirk your individual responsibility without being a traitor to your country, a traitor to every soldier who has offered his life to save you and yours, a traitor to outraged womanhood, a traitor to God and to all mankind.

No one else can do your duty.

If you knew that the Liberty Loan would be oversubscribed a hundredfold, your duty to subscribe would be just as great as though you knew the needed amount would not be raised.

What others do does not relieve you from your responsibility any more than the religion of your neighbor relieves you from the responsibility of a religious life, nor any more than the insurance of a neighbor of his family through life insurance releases you from obligations to protect your family in the same way.

Deep down in your heart you should vow before Almighty God:

"I will buy Liberty Bonds to the last dollar I can invest for world salvation from German damnation."

CAN MOTOR TOMORROW

Those who desire can operate their automobiles tomorrow. Gasless Sundays have been declared of until further notice, and autoists will have at least two Sundays in which to indulge in this modern amusement. From present indications the weather will be ideal, and hundreds of people whose cars have been laid up during the past few Sundays will doubtless be out.

No order was issued against motoring on Sunday, yet the great mass of persons owning cars cheerfully obeyed the request to conserve gasoline and all not forced by necessity were asked to refrain from using their machines on the first day of the week until further notice.

Sunday is the only day thousands can take to indulge in motoring. Many persons owning cars are engaged on other days of the week, and they have naturally looked forward to Sunday on which to indulge in this recreation.

Hundreds of automobiles pass through Alexandria on Sundays, and the road from Washington to Mount Vernon is thick with these modern vehicles. We may expect a renewal of such scenes tomorrow.

MOMENTOUS EVENTS

While great events are on the gale,
And each hours brings a varying tale,

We hear that Austria has begun the evacuation of all invaded territories in accordance with President Wilson's demand; that the Emperor Charles proclaims a plan to organize the dual monarchy on a federalized basis and meets Italian Trentino demands; that the Germans and Austrians are clearing out of Serbia, Montenegro and Albania; U-boats have been sent out by Germany since the armistice offer; Radical Socialists clash with police in demonstration in the Unter den Linden Berlin; Sabers bar rioters' way to the imperial palace; demonstrators denounce Kaiser and sing "Marseillaise."; unrest throughout Germany grows; anti-Kaiser demonstrations are reported in many cities; German retreat on 230-mile front from North Sea to Verdun; Allies pushing on everywhere; Bruges Zeebrugge, Tourcoing and Roubaix captured; Belgian cavalry advancing on Ghent may cut off German retreat; road to Brussels, Belgian capital, open and that the German front between Oise and Serre is giving way under French pressure.

Germany's answer to President Wilson's ultimatum is expected hourly, as dispatches from European cities tell us it will be sent today

The newspapers of last Sunday morning carried streamer headings announcing Germany's acceptance of Wilson's fourteen demands. They may print more ominous dispatches tomorrow.

Truly, "great events are on the gale."

THE SPIRIT THAT GUIDES WILL WIN.

The sons of our men, who wore the Blue
Are fighting today in France,
Defending our Flag, brave and true,
And you read of their advance
Against the hordes, opposed to Peace,
Liberty, Freedom and Love.
They will prevail and will not cease
For a Spirit guides them, above.

The sons of our men, who wore the Gray,
Are fighting today in France,
Battling on and opening a way
That all might have a chance.
They follow the Flag, where'er it flies,
The Flag our boys all love.
They will prevail as prayers arise
To the Spirit that guides them, above.

May the Spirit of God teach us all
To watch, to work and to pray,
That our arms might prevail, yes against all
Who would dare our cause delay.
Invest your dollars in Liberty Bonds,
Your small cash in War Saving Stamps,
Give to the Red Cross, to bind up wounds,
And donate to the Community Camps.

SUNDAY MEDITATION

(By Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D. pastor Second Presbyterian Church).

Religion in the Home.

Text Joshua 24:15, "As for the and my house, we will serve the Lord."

"Religion! What treasure untold resides in the heavenly world; more precious than silver and gold, or all that this earth can afford!"

—Cowper.

When the word "religion" is linked with the word "home" the theme is invested with a supreme significance. Religion in the home, therefore, is a subject of vital importance, for when it is recognized that the family is the nursery of the church and civilization and that the home of today will give coloring and character to the church and citizenship of tomorrow, no greater subject can command earnest consideration. The present plea is for religion in every home and a family altar at every hearthstone. Religion has ever pertained to the home, and the family being the oldest of institutions, there are traces of religion found in it from the earliest days. The poet is not merely presenting the fanciful when he represent Adam and Eve as addressing their morning thoughts in concert to God.

History is illuminated by splendid illustrations of family religion. After the flood, "Noah builded an altar unto the Lord," Abraham reared an altar on the plains of Moreh, Isaac built an altar at Beersheba and Jacob at Bethel said to his family; "Put away the strange gods that are among you."

Job, it is said, rose up early in the morning and offered burnt offerings according to number of them all."

The historian records that christians began the day with prayer, and the commendation of Timothy was that he had from a child known the Holy Scriptures.

The Reformation period furnishes many examples of family religion, and the reformers valued it very highly. Household piety was prevalent in Germany, Switzerland, Holland and France. But in no country has the light of family religion burned more brightly than in Scotland. Family devotion was found among Reapers in barns, in fishing boats, on lakes, and in the depth of coal pits. Burns in his "Cotter's Saturday Night" vividly portrays scenes in real life among Scottish peasantry. A beautiful tribute to a mother's love and to the power of home piety was given by the celebrated John Randolph, of Roanoke, in a letter written to a friend just before his death. He wrote: "At one period of my life I was on the verge of becoming a French atheist, I had let go my hold on many of the doctrines of christianity and of the truths of the Bible and was about taking the plunge into that dreadful abyss of atheism. I was only held back from it by the recollection that when I was a little child my mother, who is now a Saint in heaven, used to make me kneel by her side and then, taking my little hands in hers, taught me to say, "Our Father Who Art in Heaven."

The power of family religion is recognized in its threefold influence on the church, the Nation and posterity.

Influence on the Church.

It is a quaint but true saying, "A praying people makes a preaching minister." It is like the service rendered by Aaron and Hur. The primary value of family prayer to the church is that it is answered, It is no small thing for a family to have daily supplications for God's grace and blessing on it ascending from many fresides. What a source of power and spring of refreshment. The family devotions of praying, pious kiddermin-ster made Richard Baxter a better preacher, for, "like people, like priest, It is possible for a congregation to make or mar its pastor, Religion in the home then, will spiritualize and vitalize the preacher and inspire by the Holy Spirit's presence every member of the congregation with enthusiasm. The church that is active and aggressive must have the fire of family devotion burning on every home altar.

Influence on the Nation.

This influence is at once recognized when it is remembered that a Christian home is the school of good citizenship and true patriotism. It is necessary in making good citizens to begin early. All great race problems should be met and solved on the plains of childhood rather than at mature manhood and womanhood. The children taught to obey laws and submit to authority become good citizens in the community. The popular evils which threaten the country and are a menace to society come from a spirit of insubordination and this is caused in large measure by neglect of parental authority. The youth who has never learned to obey and honor his parents, will never yield himself to legal authority. He who is not a good son, cannot be a good citizen, An obedient child has the possibilities of noble citizenship, Dr. Thomas Guthrie has said, "It is curious to pause over any cradle to think of the mighty powers and passions that are slumbering there; to think this feeble nursling has heaven or hell before it," Abram became a great and mighty blessing, for "he commanded his children after him."

Influence on Posterity.

A true man cannot be indifferent to what is coming after him on earth, The Bible is against the selfish ideas of many who forget their duty to future generations. The family is the point of connection and the medium of transmission in the human race in the matter of generations. God enjoins upon the parent diligent and faithful instruction of the children and their children's children.

From earliest history God has dealt with mankind on the family principle. No real father can be unconcerned about the destiny of his children even unto remote descendants. This duty has found its way into the legal usages of all nations and colors the common law of our ancestors. The father stands as the federal representative of the family and is prophet, priest and king in the house. The neglect of family religion causes the parent to face the charge of injustice toward his children. The priceless estate of moral ideals and religious inspirations belong to the child. The father's virile and victorious religion should be the strength of the child's life.

Religion is a veritable "Gulf stream" in the ocean of time, bringing warmth and spiritual life just as does the "Gulf stream" in the Atlantic Ocean, which flows in a northeasterly direction along the American coast, gradually widening its currents, decreasing its velocity until it reaches the banks of Newfoundland, when it sweeps across the Atlantic and affords temperateness to the British Isles. Ships beaten back by violent storms turn their prows to the east and seek relief and comfort in the Gulf Stream.

So human souls on the tempestuous sea of life find warmth, safety and peace in a home where God is honored and where the incense of worship and devotion ascends from the family altar. In these days of stress and strain may there be religion in every home and a family altar at every hearthstone!

THE GERMAN REPLY

Allies of Central Powers Will Decide Upon a Common Attitude

Amsterdam, Oct. 19.—The newspaper Tyd, whose Berlin correspondent had first notice of the German peace offer says last night that it will publish Germany's reply to President Wilson today.

The paper adds that Germany, Austria-Hungary and Turkey will decide upon a common attitude as soon as President Wilson answers the Austrian note.

Another dispatch from Amsterdam says the German "war cabinet" is in continuous session in Berlin, receiving hourly reports from German headquarters in the field, according to yesterday's advices from the German capital. The German answer to President Wilson is not yet completed, the dispatches state. Admiral von Scheer, commander of the German high-seas fleet, has arrived in Berlin and is conferring with the military and political leaders.

Thursday's report of the recall by wireless of all U-boats remains unconfirmed officially. Yesterday's advices are to the effect that since the German armistice offer no U-boats have been sent out.

Latest word regarding the Reichstag is that the next session will not be held until Tuesday. This indicates to some observers that the German answer will not be dispatched until next week, since the Reichstag is generally expected to be called upon to approve that answer, in order to show the world it comes from the German people's representatives.

Follow this Alexandria citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

J. B. Mills, marine engineer, 212 S. I have always received most satisfactory results. A few doses of Doan's always regulate my kidneys and help my back when it is weak and lame."

The American Spirit of Liberty and Freedom.

Every time you buy a Liberty Bond, you put a newer and higher courage in the hearts of all fighting boys but especially of those boys whose parents came here so that their sons might be free to fight for Liberty.

Every penny you lend our Government in your investment of Liberty Bonds is used to give us a better Army and Navy.

There isn't a soul living who owns bonds of the first, second or third Liberty Loans who isn't proud of what he has helped to do for our Country. Now it is the Fourth Liberty Loan-bigger than was ever known before, and backed by greater resources than any investment you ever made.

Don't wait for the final "spurt," don't wait for the fire of enthusiasm; don't wait for speeches and parades and bands.

Buy your Liberty Bonds this week, for you know you are going to buy them. You are not sacrificing a penny; you are not giving a cent. You are lending your money to the Government; you get good interest for it; you get your money back.

We cannot win without money, and therefore these loans are vital, and our people should rally in all their strength and subscribe---and--over-subscribe---the Fourth Liberty Loan. Subscribe to-day without fail.

The Alexandria National Bank has shown its faith in the Fourth Liberty Loan by subscribing for itself one hundred thousand dollars---$100,000---of the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.
This is in addition to over sixty thousand dollars subscribed by its friends and patrons through the Alexandria National Bank to the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

Make your arrangements with this Bank for purchasing your Bonds.

The subscriber told Mr. Powell he had been carrying a dime savings bank, holding $1, on the end of his watch chain for several years and that when it became full he would empjty in into a box.
